

RIDS-Switzerland/RIDS-Nepal: Pere Village HCD Project 2 in Jumla, Nepal - Photo Report Jan.-Dec. 2023

Pic.01. RIDS conducts PIC (Project Implementation Committee) Meeting to discuss the HCD project implementation plan with local leaders in Pere Village, Jumla.

Pic.02. PIC Meeting with RIDS in Pere to discuss the Holistic Community Development (HCD) project implementation plan with the 9 members of the PIC.

Pic.03. RIDS conducts a PIC Meeting to discuss the various HCD project and implementations. The local people presented their ideas ad wishes.

Pic.04. RIDS conducts a PIC Meeting along with the representative Pere families to discuss the HCD project and the local families ideas and recommendations.

Pic. 05. In January 2023, RIDS-Nepal presents the Pere village HCD Project implementation plan to the local Nepal government officers.

Pic. 06. RIDS-Nepal Team shares the Pere village HCD Project implementation plan with the local Nepal government officials, for their feedback and approval.

Pic. 07. Pere Women are provided with a training related to improved Health and Personal Hygiene possible through HCD from Mathachaur health post staff.

Pic. 08. The Pere village women during the training related to the benefits of the HCD project in relation to their families' health and personal hygiene.

Pic.09. Functional Pit Latrines in Pere Village constructed as part of the GG1 project.

Pic.10. A Pit Latrine in Pere Village constructed as part of the GG1 project.

Pic.11. Pere community is happy after getting their Smokeless Metal Stoves (SMS).

Pic.12. A Smokeless Metal Stoves (SMS) in use in one of the Pere families.

Pic.13. Pere families using a DWS tap stand constructed as part of the GG1.

Pic.14. With sufficient water in the village Pit Latrines can be cleaned easier.

Pic.15. A Pere family using the SSWF for clean drinking water installed under GG1.

Pic.16. A family using the SSWF for clean drinking water installed under GG1.

Pic.17. A Pere family is sharing a cauliflower grown in the greenhouse.

Pic.18. A Pere woman is in her greenhouse with lots of grown cabbage.

Pic.19. Pere women are carrying newly arrived solar drier to their home.

Pic.20. RIDS-Nepal staff is providing onsite training on how to use solar drier.

Pic.21. A Pere woman is milling flour in one of the six new Improved Water Mills.

Pic.22. Another of the new Improved Water Mills (IWM) in Pere in use.

Pic.23. A view of SWHBC installed in Pere village as part of GG1.

Pic.24. The Pere community is happy with hot water showers.

Pic.25. Pere mothers are attending the mal-nutrition training course.

Pic.26. Pere mothers receive super porridge, part of the nutrition support training.

Pic.27. Pere women are participating in the one-month tailoring skill training.

Pic.28. Pere women are participating in tailoring skill training.

Pic.29. Carpentry training participants made various types of furniture.

Pic.30. Tailoring & carpentry trainees receive their graduation certificates.

Pic. 31. Drone picture of Pere village with the Solar Water Heater Bathing Center (bottom right) and pit latrines